

Presence Theater Church
Bible Survey
Jude and Intro. to Revelation

Jude was written to condemn false teachers who were trying to persuade Christians that they were free to _____ since they had been forgiven and were under God's _____.

Who wrote it? _____ is the writer of this epistle (1:1). Jude, called _____ in the Gospels, is most probably the half brother of _____.
(Matt. 13:55, Mark 6:3)

Date of writing _____ and Surrounding Circumstances:

- This letter gives no specific information regarding to whom or from where it is written. We know the recipients of this letter were Christians whom Jude considered as “_____” (v. 3).

Key Term: _____: This letter is a reminder that Christians are _____ engaged in spiritual warfare. They are called to contend for the truth of the gospel.

Location of Events: _____

- Book Outline:
- I. _____ of Jude (1-4)
 - II. _____ of False Teachers (5-16)
 - Past Judgment of False Teachers (5-7)
 - Presence Characteristics of False Teachers (8-13)
 - Future Judgment of False Teachers (14-16)
 - III. _____ Against False Teachers (17-23)
 - IV. _____ of Jude (24, 25)

Summary in one sentence: Christians must defend the faith against false _____ and false teachers, and at the same time they must build up their own faith in Christ.

Summary in ten words or less: _____

Cast of Characters: Jude – a servant of Jesus; brother of _____; Ungodly Men – an immoral influence on the church

Verse to Remember: “But you, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, _____ in the Holy Spirit” (Jude 1:20)

- Interesting Facts:
1. Jude alone refers to the dispute between Michael and the devil about the body of Moses. (v. 9)
 2. Jude does not direct his epistle to a stated circle of readers or a stated geographical region.
 3. Jude’s benediction is one of the most beautiful in the Bible (v. 24, 25).

What is my take away? Christians must not only know the truth, but they must also know what is not the truth. The only way to accomplish this is to study the Word of God and pray for a _____ of its truth, and also _____ of the lie that comes to oppose the truth.

.